ACCOSTS WOMAN; MAN ARRESTED

LUMBER JACK, BOOMS LARSEN, KNOWN ON SPEAKING TO WIFE OF LOCAL BUSINESS MAN, AND IS JUDGED

A drunken lumber jack was arrested by Chief of Police Smith and Officer Greenwood about 7 o'clock last night after complaint had been made that he had accosted a woman in Main street. The woman, who was identified as the wife of a local business man, was walking along the street, and when she saw the man called to her. She paid no attention to him, but he overtook her and took her by the arm. She broke away from him and ran home. Her husband was informed, and he made a complaint to the police.

Take notice that a special meeting of all Shriners is called for Friday evening, February 14th, at the Masonic Hall. Important business. Every Shriner is earnestly urged to be present.

Clyde Bradley came in last night from Merrill to attend to business matters here. While in Klamath Falls he is a guest at the Hall.

Miss Louise Lee will arrive home this evening from Oakland, where she has been studying music for several months past. Miss Lee is the daughter of County Assessor J. F. Lee.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE CLASS SEES HOTEL

KITCHEN OF THE WHITE PELICAN CAN INSPECTED BY FUTURE HOUSEWIVES WHO STUDY COOKING AT HIGH SCHOOL

In charge of C. T. Oliver, secretary of the Klamath Chamber of Commerce, and Miss Addie Carpenter, head of that department, the members of the Domestic Science department of Klamath county high school this afternoon paid a visit to the White Pelican hotel. This was the first opportunity many of the young ladies have had to see the workings of a big, up-to-date hotel.

The spacious kitchen, of course, was the chief source of interest to the embryo housewives, and as the White Pelican kitchen is equipped with every possible convenience, even to refrigeration, the class was greatly impressed. The students were also shown through the other parts of the hotel.

W. O. McClure, superintendent of the Big Basin Lumber company's branch yard at Dorris, is a Klamath Falls visitor.

Alfred Keller came in from Bonanza Wednesday, and will be here several days attending to business matters.

WHAT IS THE USE?

Of cooking at home when you can go to the Hotel Grill Sundays from 12 p. m. to 2, and get a Turkey or Chicken Dinner, cooked to taste, and served the best.

SNOW SETTLES BULL ARGUMENT

DISPUTE CONCERNING OWNERSHIP OF BOVINE IS AMICABLY ADJUSTED OUT OF COURT BY LOCAL CONSTABLE

Constable W. M. Snow returned last night from Langell Valley, where he was sent to serve papers in the suit of Otto Ernest Hoppe against Mary Jones to recover a bull the former alleged Mrs. Jones was wrongfully holding.

Snow upon arriving there, found that the disputed animal was sold to Hoppe by Mrs. Jones, and that it frequently returned to the Jones ranch. She says she asked Hoppe to brand the animal, and that he brought the action through a misunderstanding. The bull was returned to Hoppe by Snow.

CITIZENS FLEE FOR THEIR LIVES

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 13.—At 9 o'clock the artillery duel continued. The heavy guns of the Madere forces did great damage to the arsenal.

Many of the shells have gone far out of the fighting zone, killing and wounding many people.

Both sides are ignoring the rules of civilized warfare.

At 10 o'clock the fighting was in full progress. A few minutes later there was a lull in the firing.

Many of the dead and dying lying in the streets were non-combatants.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 13.

Vera Cruz reports to the state department that communication with Mexico City has failed. It is not known whether or not the instruments at the capital have been abandoned in the face of the artillery fire centered on the telegraph office.

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 13.—The Mexican Cable company's office is the target of the Danites for a hall of shrapnel.

Fighting is in progress about the building.

The streets are blockaded with dead bodies.

The casualties are enormous.

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 13.—A battle was started at 8:10 this morning.

The Madere fighters were supplied with additional ammunition, and continued in the aggressive.

Shells continue to fall in territory outside of the fighting zone. All night troops slept in the streets.

Little effort was made to remove the dead, and many wounded died from lack of attention.

The Diaz cannon and machine guns are the strongest, and the madere superior to the federales.

The city is terrorized. Last night marauders roamed about, pillaging and setting and burning deserted houses.

United States Ambassador Wilson has commandeered twenty automobiles, and these, heavily guarded, carried 700 Americans out of the city before daylight. Despite white flags, the autos were fired on several times. Great confusion prevails in the native section, and thousands are fleeing.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 13.—Secretary Knox, at the request of President Taft, gave Ambassador Wilson carte blanche to draw funds for the care of American and foreign refugees.

The Americans are sleeping on their arms in Mexico City, preparing to defend themselves.

Knox was notified today that the Cuban battleship Cuba, with 200 troops aboard, will land a force at Vera Cruz to go to Mexico City to protect the Cuban legation.

Intervention Demanded

(United Press Service)

LONDON, Feb. 13.—Radical newspapers are demanding American intervention in Mexico. The Standard says today:

"Mexico must get her affairs in proper order or accept the supervision of her great neighbor."

TO WELCOME COMING NOBLES

E. D. Briggs, illustrious potentate of Hiliath Temple, and one of the leading attorneys of Ashland, is here in connection with the pilgrimage, and tomorrow night local Shriners will meet with him at the Masonic hall to arrange details.

According to Mr. Briggs, all the Ashland Nobles are planning to make the pilgrim to Klamath Falls. In addition to members of the Southern Oregon jurisdiction, he states that Shriners from other parts of the state are also expected.

It is believed that the famous Arab Patrol of Al Kader Temple at Portland will also be here. In that event the northerners will assist Hiliath Temple in the initiatory ceremonies.

Local Shriners are planning for the entertainment of upwards of 150 lodge men. A ritualistic meeting, parade, banquet and trip to points of interest on the Upper Lake are among the features being discussed, but as yet only tentative arrangements have been made.

MILITIA TAKE PLACE REGULAR ARMY

TRENTON, N. J., Feb. 13.—President-elect Wilson insists that he has heard nothing from President Taft regarding the Mexican situation. He admitted that he had read everything in the newspapers regarding the matter, but declined to discuss it.

Wilson announced that he would send his resignation as governor of New Jersey to the secretary of state soon. It will be effective March 1st.

Ralph R. Forbes of Kansas City is at the White Pelican.

Mr. Forbes is worth having, and worth knowing. See Chicago and Main St. News.
